INDEX TO AUTHORS.

Aitken, Colonel J. J.—Economic and military necessity of an Army Veterinary Service, 263.
Aveston, Lieut. J. J.—Adenoma of the kidney in a horse, 55.

Baxter, J. R.—Interesting cases, 291,
Bond, P. G.—Tannin and tanning. 284.
Brooke, W. H.—Purpura hæmorrhagica, 373.

"Canis Major."—Few errors in diagnosis and treatment, 371.
Chambers, Major F.—Notes on the treatment of equine specific ophthalmia, 54.
Chaussé, Vet. Major.—On the treatment of lymphangitis in the horse, 111.
Clarkson, M.—Case of staggers in horse, 331.
Cotton, Major Charles E., V.C., —Veterinary service in the American Army, and the duties of veterinarians during the war period, 318.
Country Practitioner.—Intussusception in the dog, 86.
Cross, H. E.—Note on jhooling in camels, 17, 18.

Ditewig, George.—Meat-inspection service of the United States Department of Agriculture, 415.

Eve, Henry B.—Clinical cases, 253; Hepatic echinococci as a mechanical cause of chronic tympanitis in cattle, 176; Interesting cases, 365; Oral sepsis in the dog, 213; Paraphimosis in the dog, 290; Toxic enteritis and constipation in the dog, 212.

Finzi, Guido.—Mercurial compounds in the treatment of epizootic lymphangitis, 223.
Frost, J. N., and Hopper E. B.—Docking and castration of the young lamb, 386.

Gair, G.—Bacterial pyelonephritis in a cow, 56; transmission by cows' milk of B. Diphtheriæ, 44.
Gallagher, Bernard; A., and Ward, Archibald R.—Intradermal test for Bacterium pullorum infection in fowls, 96.
Galli-Valerio, Professor B.—Coccidia in the intestines—red dysentery of cattle—Observations on Eimeria zurni-rivolta, 219.
Gupta, M. C.—Lymphangitis in elephants (illustrated), 405.

"H."—An east coast fever episode, 256.
Hall, Maurice C.—Control of lice on horses, with especial reference to winter conditions, 247, 278; Notes in regard to horse lice, Trichodectes and Hæmatopinus (illustrated), 87.
Hancock, Capt. R. C. G.—Treble strangulation of the ileum in a horse (illustrated), 168.
Hines, Capt. A. J.—Notes on treatment of ulcerative lymphangitis from November 18th, 1917, to January 11th, 1918, 199.
Hobday, Major Frederick—Two interesting cases of "Cherry's operation," 400.
Hodgkins, Lieut.-Col., D.S.O.—Obstructed breathing due to a cyst (illustrated), 399.
Hopper, E. B., and Frost, J. N.—Docking and castration of the young lamb, 386.
Hornby, Capt. H. E.—Normal erythrocyte count of East African native cattle, 243.
Howard, H., D.V.S.—Castration of cryptochid boar, 293.
Hudson, R.—Shoulder lameness treated with injection of cocaine, 150.

Jaegar, John A.—Pitfalls in castration, 302.
Jarvis, Captain E. M.—Report on ixodic lymphangitis, 44.
Jones, Richard.—Spring time cases, 369.

Kaupp, B. F.—Generalised sarcomatosis of the fowl (illustrated), 80.
Kirk, Capt. Hamilton.—Sclerostomes as a cause of debility, 202.

Leiper, R. T.—Is the cat really a definite host of Dicrocoelium lanceatum? 327.
Leneveu, Vet. Aide-Major.—Uræmia of acarian origin in horses, 69.
Linton, R. G.—Diatetic value of hayloft sweepings (illustrated), 239.

Lothian, Wm.—Delayed fracture of the humerus, 14; Ectopia cardia (illustrated), 364; Sodium sulphate exsiccat, 247; Wind sucking in a cow, 365.

Mahon, Fred. C.—Aspergillosis of birds, man and animals: a résumé (illustrated), 59; Parasitism: a résumé, 214
Mayall, G.—Alopecia, 16; Bloody urine, 58; Interesting cases, 409; Ptomaine poisoning in the dog, 211; Pyæmia in a heifer, 205; Ringworm in the dog, 291; Sarcoptic mange in dog and purulent ophthalmia in a bull bitch, 178; Seaweed, 401; Treatment of injury of spine in dog by suspension, 175; Tympanitis in dog, 291; Veterinary surgeon as an educative force, 357.
Moore, Major-General J.—Glanders and farcy, 120.
Morgan, Edward.—Braxy: with special reference to the disease as seen in north Cardiganshire, 179, 206; British flock-masters and veterinary surgeons' outlook, 358; Distomatosis, liver-rot, or fluke in sheep and cattle, 5.

Newsom, Col. A. C.—Note on the results of a certain number of operations for laryngeal paralysis on active service, 167; Periodic ophthalmia 157; Ulcerative cellulitis or ulcerative lymphangitis, 130.

Pallin, Major W. A.—Notes on epizootic lymphangitis, 124.
Parker, J. H.—Clinical cases, 411; Lame horse, 330.
Parker, Thomas. — Necessity for abattoirs, 334.
Peatt, Captain E. S. W. Carrel's tube treatment for septic wounds as adapted to veterinary surgery (illustrated), 136.
Pollock, J. W.—Case of digitalis poisoning, 375. Notes on mastitis in cattle, 376.
Powell, C. W.—Diphtheritic vaginitis of cattle, 11.
Price, L.—Horse-flesh as human food, 20.

Rode, Wilhelm.—Horse lazaret, its significance, development and present position, 65.
Rogers, B. R.—New vision of an old plague, 189.
Rouband, M. E.—The production and self-destruction of domestic flies in horse manure, 74.
Routledge, Capt. A. R.—Notes of a case of complete dislocation of the left femur in a cow, with rough diagram showing the characteristic recumbent posture (illustrated), 177.

Savage, Captain A.—Combined neurectomy hook and knife (illustrated), 325.

Taylor, [Major J. H.—Actinomycosis, 198.

Velu.—The curative treatment of epizootic lymphangitis by vaccine therapy, 73.

Wadley, Major E. J.—Control and treatment of mange and other contagious skin diseases, 161.
Ward, Archibald R., and Gallagher, Bernard A.—Intradermal test for Bacterium pullorum infection in fowls, 87.
Watson, Captain E. A.—Copper sulphate as a disinfectant and a germicide, 326; Some remarks and suggestions on the vaccine and serum methods of treatment of ulcerative lymphangitis, 170.
Way, W. D.—Symptoms and control of stomach-worm disease, 387.
Wilkie, H. C.—Periodic ophthalmia, 244.
Wilson, P.—Case of combined maternal and fœtal dystocia, 329; Retention of urine as a cause of colic in young foals, 333.
Wyssmann, Dr. E.—Double-sided extensive cysts at the frontal end of the wolffian ducts in a cow (illustrated), 186.

GENERAL INDEX.

A.

Abattoirs, necessity for, 334.
Abstracts.—
Anthrax and its prevention, 347.
Blood-sucking insects as transmitters of anthrax or charbon, 377
Cattle-poisoning by water dropwort, 307.
Composition and value of some of our common vegetables. By D. Crawford, 460.
Cryptorchidism treated medicinally, 305.
Delusion that dies hard, 306.
Docking and castration of the young lamb. By J. N. Frost and E. B. Hopper, 386.
Gas masks for horses, 387.
Gastro-intestinal lavage against worms, 304.
German veterinary casualties to end of 1917, 389.
New vision of an old plague. By B. R. Rogers, D.V.M., 189.
Pitfalls in castration. By John A. Jaegar, D.V.M., 302.
Scabies problem on active service. By Major MacCormac and Capt. Small, 454.
Seaweed as food for horses, 346.
Symptoms and control of stomach-worm disease. By W. D. Way, 387.
Actinomycosis, 198.
Adenoma of the kidney in a horse, 55.
Agriculture, meat-inspection service of the United States Department of, 414
Alopecia, 16.
America, France and Italy, the professional "Entente Cordiale" in, 115.
American Army Veterinary Service, 293.
—— —— —— —— in, and the duties of veterinarians during the war period, 318.
—— colleagues, our, and the Somme Veterinary Medical Society, 116.
—— Veterinary Medical Association, code of ethics for members of the, 109.
Amputation of the tail, 254.
Animal food, 42.
—— life, saving, 4.
Animals, birds and man, aspergillosis of. A résumé (illustrated), 59.
——, humane slaughtering of, and the "novices' slaughtering block," 355.
Anthrax, 347, 377.
—— and its prevention, 347.
—— or charbon, blood-sucking insects as transmitters of, 377.
Army Veterinary Service, 269.
—— —— ——, American, 293.
—— —— ——, economic and military necessity of, 263.
Arsenivan in the treatment of epizootic lymphangitis, 72.
Articulation, sacro-iliac, in the mare notes of a case of laceration of the (illustrated), 253.
Asphyxiating gas, effect of on the horse, 301.
Aspergillosis of birds, man and animals. A résumé (illustrated), 59.
Auxiliary Relief Fund Committee, Ladies', 397.
Awkward clients and increased fees, 316.

B

Bacterial pyelonephritis in a cow, 56.
Bacterium pullorum infection in fowls, intradermal test for, 96.
Birds, man and animals, the aspergillosis of. A résumé (illustrated), 59.
Bitch, bull, purulent ophthalmia in a, and sarcoptic mange in dog, 178.
Blood-sucking insects as transmitters of anthrax or charbon, 377.
Bloody urine, 58.
Boar, cryptorchid, castration of, 293.
Bodies, dead, deodorization of, 392,
Boxing competition "somewhere in Italy" (illustrated), 226.
Brain of a dog, epilepsy caused by parasitic cysts in the, 255.
Braxy: with special reference to the disease as seen in north Cardiganshire, 179, 206.
Breathing obstructed, due to a cyst (illustrated), 398.
British and French Army Veterinary Service, conference of officers, 118, 157.
—— flock-masters' and veterinary surgeons' outlook, 358.
Bull bitch, purulent ophthalmia in a, and sarcoptic mange in dog, 178.

C

Calculus, urethral, 111.
Camels, note on jhooling in (illustrated), 17, 18.

Care of horses and mules during the present war, necessity for, 196.
Carrel's tube treatment for septic wounds, as adapted to veterinary surgery (illustrated), 136.
Case of combined maternal and fœtal dystocia, 329.
Case of digitalis poisoning, 375.
—— of laceration of the sacro-iliac articulation in the mare (illustrated), 253.
—— of staggers in horse, 331.
Cases, clinical, 253, 411.
——, interesting, 291, 365, 409.
—— of "Cherry's operation," two interesting, 400.
Castration and docking of the young lamb, 386.
—— of cryptorchid boar, 293.
——, pitfalls in, 302.
Casualties, German veterinary, to end of 1917, 389.
Cat, is it really a definite host of Dicrocœlium lanceatum? 327.
Cattle and sheep, distomatosis, liver-rot or fluke in, 5.
——, diphtheritic vaginitis of, 11.
——, hepatic echinococci as a mechanical cause of chronic tympanitis in, 176.
——, native, East Africa, normal erythrocyte count of, 243.
——, notes on mastitis in, 376.
—— poisoning by water drop-wort, 307.
——, red dysentery of—coccidia in the intestines—observations on Eimeria zurni-rivolta, 219.
Cause, mechanical, of chronic tympanitis in cattle, hepatic echinococci as a, 176.
Charbon or anthrax, blood-sucking insects as transmitters of, 377.
"Cherry's operation," two interesting cases of, 401.
Cholera, hog, 107.
Chronic tympanitis in cattle, hepatic echinococci as a mechanical cause of, 176.
Clients, awkward, and increased fees, 316.

Clinical Cases.—
Castration of cryptorchid boar. By H. Howard, D.V.S., 293.
Clinical cases, 411.
—— —— by Henry B. Eve, M.R.C.V.S., 253.
—— —— By A. Payne, F.R.C.V.S., 451.
Interesting cases. By J. R. Baxter, M.R.C.V.S., 291.
Paraphimosis in the dog. By Henry B. Eve, M.R.C.V.S., 290.
Ringworm in the dog. By G. Mayall, M.R.C.V.S., 291.
Tympanitis in dog. By G. Mayall, M.R.C.V.S., 291.
Cocaine injection, shoulder lameness treated with, 150.
Coccidia in the intestines—red dysentery of cattle—observations on Eimeria zurni-rivolta, 219.
Code of ethics for members of the American Veterinary Medical Association, 109.
Coital exanthema in the horse, 268.
Colic, retention of urine as a cause of, in young foals, 333.
Combined neurectomy hook and knife (illustrated), 325.
Competition, boxing, "somewhere in Italy (illustrated), 226.
Complete dislocation of the left femur in a cow, with rough diagram showing the characteristic recumbent posture (illustrated), 177.
Compounds, mercurial, in the treatment of epizootic lymphangitis, 223.
Conference of Officers of the French and British Army Veterinary Service, 118, 157.
Constipation and toxic enteritis in the dog, 212.
Control and symptoms of stomach-worm disease, 387.
—— of lice on horses, with especial reference to winter conditions, 247, 278.
—— of treatment of mange and other contagious skin diseases, 161.
Copper sulphate as a disinfectant and germicide, 326.
Correspondence.—
Coital exanthema in the horse, 268.
Dystocia in the mare, 308.
Effect of a shell fright, 229.
Rabies, 391.
Registered veterinary surgeons, 390.
Special tribunal, 390.
Count, normal erythrocyte, of East African native cattle, 243.
Country, value of the veterinary student to the, 315.
Cow, bacterial pyelonephritis in a, 56.
——, left femur in a, notes of a case of complete dislocation of the, with rough diagram showing the characteristic recumbent posture (illustrated), 177.
——, milk defects in the, and their remedies, 246.
——, radial paralysis in the (illustrated), 15.
——, wind sucking in a, 365.
Cryptorchid boar, castration of, 293.
Cryptorchidism treated medicinally, 305.

Curative treatment of epizootic lymphangitis by vaccine therapy, 73.
Cyst, obstructed breathing due to (illustrated), 398.
Cysts, parasitic, in the brain of a dog, epilepsy caused by, 255.

D

Dead bodies, deodorization of, 392.
Debility, sclerostomes as a cause of, 202.
Defects, milk, in the cow and their remedies, 246.
Delayed fracture of the humerus, 14.
Delusion that dies hard, 306.
Deodorization of dead bodies, 392.
Department of Agriculture, meat-inspection service of United States, 414.
Daignosis and therapeutics of glanders, 298.
—— and treatment, few errors in, 371.
Dicrocœlium lanceatum, is the cat really a definite host of, 327.
Dietetic value of hay-loft sweepings (illustrated), 237, 239.
Digitalis poisoning, case of, 375.
Diphtheritic vaginitis of cattle, 11
Diseases of fowls and fish, 77.
——, seasonal, of war, 195.
Disinfectant and germicide, copper sulphate as a, 327.
Dislocation, complete, of the left femur in a cow, notes of a case of, with rough diagram showing the characteristic recumbent posture (illustrated), 177.
Distomatosis, liver-rot, or fluke in sheep and cattle, 5.
Docking and castration of the young lamb, 386.
Dog, epilepsy caused by parasitic cysts in the brain of, 255.
——, intussusception in the, 86.
——, oral sepsis in the, 213
——, paraphimosis in the, 290.
——, ptomaine poisoning in the, 211.
——, ringworm in the, 291.
——, sarcoptic mange in the, and purulent ophthalmia in a bull bitch, 178.
——, toxic enteritis and constipation in the, 213.
——, treatment of injury of the spine in, by suspension, 175.
——, tympanitis in, 291.
Double-sided extensive cysts at the frontal end of the wolffian ducts in a cow (illustrated) 186.
Duties of veterinarians during the war period, and veterinary service in the American Army, 318.
Dysentery, red, of cattle—coccidia in the intestines—observations on Eimeria zurni-rivolta, 219.
Dystocia, fœtal and maternal combined, case of, 329.
—— in the mare, 308.

E.

East African native cattle, normal erythrocyte count of, 243.
—— coast fever episode, 256.
Echinococci, hepatic, as a mechanical cause of chronic tympanitis in cattle, 176.
Economic and military necessity of an Army Veterinary Service. By Col. J. J. Aitken, 263.
Economy, necessity for, in regard to horses and mules, 316.
Ectopia cardis (illustrated), 364.
Educative force, veterinary surgeon as an, 357.
Effect of a shell fright, 229.
Effects of asphyxiating gas on the horse, 301.
Effort to return the American Veterinary Service to the Quartermaster Corps of the army, 297.
Eimeria zurni-rivolta, observations on —coccidia in the intestines—red dysentery of cattle, 219.
Elephants, lymphangitis in (illustrated), 403.
Energy and production, 3.
"Entente Cordiale," professional, in France, Italy and America, 115.
Enteritis, toxic, and constipation in the dog, 212.
Epilepsy caused by parasitic cysts in the brain of a dog, 255.
Epizootic lymphangitis, arsenivan in the treatment of, 72.
—— ——, curative treatment of, by vaccine therapy, 72.
—— ——, notes on, 124.
—— ——, mercurial compounds in the treatment of, 223.
Equine specific ophthalmia, notes on the treatment of, 54.
Errors in diagnosis and treatment, 371.
Erythrocyte count, normal, of East African native cattle, 243.
Ethics, code of, for members of the American Veterinary Medical Association, 109.
Exanthema, coital, in the horse, 268.

F

Fees, increased, and awkward clients, 316.

Femur, left, in a cow, notes of a case of complete dislocation of, with rough diagram showing characteristic recumbent posture (illustrated), 177.
Fever episode, an east coast, 256.
Few errors in diagnosis and treatment, 371.
Fish and fowl, diseases of, 77.
Fishing, new mode of, 108.
Flies, domestic, in horse manure, the production and self-destruction of, 74.
Flock-masters' (British) and veterinary surgeons' outlook, 358.
Fluke, distomatosis, or liver-rot in sheep and cattle, 5.
Foals, young, retention of urine as a cause of colic in, 333.
Fœtal and maternal dystocia combined, case of, 329.
Food, animal, 42.
—— ration scheme, inclusion of horseflesh in the, 155.
Fowl and fish, diseases of, 77.
——, generalised sarcomatosis of the (illustrated), 80.
Fowls, intradermal test for Bacterium pullorum infection in, 86.
Fracture, delayed, of the humerus, 4.
France, Italy and America, professional "Entente Cordiale" in, 115.
French and British Army Veterinary Service, conference of officers, 118, 157.
Fruit and vegetables, and their relation to the spread of infectious diseases, 344.

G

Gas, asphyxiating, effects on the horse, 301.
—— masks for horses, 387.
Gastro-intestinal lavage against worms, 304.
General Articles.—
American Army Veterinry Service, 293.
East Coast fever episode, an. By "H," 256.
Effort to return the American Veterinary Service to the Quartermaster Corps of the army, 297.
Horse flesh as human food. By L. Price, 20.
Meat inspection service of the United States Department of Agriculture. By George Ditewig, 414.
Nocessity for abattoirs. By Thomas Parker, F.R.C.V.S., 334.
Generalised sarcomatosis of the fowl (illustrated), 80.
German veterinary casualties to end of 1917, 389.
Germicide and disinfectant, copper sulphate as a, 326.
Glanders, 120, 298.
—— and farcy, 120.
——, diagnosis and therapeutics of, 298.

H

Hæmatopinus, horse lice and Trichodectes, notes in regard to (illustrated), 87.
Hay-loft sweepings, dietetic value of (illustrated), 237, 239.
Heifer, pyæmia in a, 205.
Hepatic echinococci as a mechanical cause of chronic tympanitis in cattle, 176.
Hog cholera, 107.
Hook, neurectomy, and knife combined (illustrated), 325.
Horse, adenoma of the kidney in a, 55.
——, case of staggers in, 331.
——, coital exanthema in the, 268.
——, effects of asphyxiating gas on the, 301.
——, lame, 330.
—— lazaret, its significance, development and present position, 65.
—— lice, Trichodectes and Hæmatopinus, notes in regard to (illustrated), 87.
——, treatment of lymphangitis in the, 111.
——, treble strangulation of the ileum in a (illustrated), 168.
Horseflesh as human food, 20.
——, inclusion of, in the food ration scheme, 155.
Horses and mules, necessity for economy in regard to, 316.
—— ——, —— for the proper care of, during the present war, 196.
Horses, control of lice on, with especial reference to winter conditions, 247, 278.
——, gas masks for, 387.
——, uræmia of acarian origin in, 69.
Human food, horseflesh as, 20.
Humerus, delayed fracture of, 14.

I

Illustrations.—
Aneurism post aorta in the mare, 254.
Campbell, the late Capt. A. W., 2.
Carrel's tube treatment for septic wounds as adapted to veterinary surgery, 137, 139, 143.
Conidiospore, conidia, acospore and aspergilli, 63.

Cow, uterus of a, with double-sided extensive cysts, 187.
Dietetic value of hay-loft sweepings (illustrated), 239.
Dislocation of the femur (left) in cow, characteristic recumbent posture in, 178.
Ectopia cardis, 364.
Fray, Vétérinaire Inspecteur, 194.
Generalised sarcomatosis of the fowl, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85.
Group of competitors in an international boxing contest "somewhere in Italy," 226.
Hammond, the late John, M.R.C.V.S., 234.
Hay-loft sweepings, 240, 242.
Horse lice, 88.
Ileum, treble strangulation of the, in a horse, 169.
Jhooling in camels, 17, 18.
Leach, the late Capt. R. E., 2.
Lennox-Conyngham, Lieut.-Col. H. M., D.S.O., M.R.C.V.S., 154.
Liautard, the late Alexandre François, 234.
Mackenzie, Captain W. J. E., A.V.C., 274.
Neurectomy hook and knife combined, 325.
Obstructed breathing due to a cyst, 399.
Radial paralysis in cow, 15.
Routledge, Captain A. R., F.R.C.V.S., 314.
Shirley, the late Capt. James. W., 2.
Smith, Henry, M.R.C.V.S., 314.
Todd, the late Mr. J. A., M.R.C.V.S., 40.
Willett, Jack, M.R.C.V.S., 394.
Wright, the late Mr. T., M.R.C.V.S., 40.
Inclusion of horseflesh in the food ration scheme, 155.
Injury of the spine in the dog treated by suspension, 175.
Insects, blood-sucking, as transmitters of anthrax or charbon, 377.
Interesting cases, 291, 365, 400.
—— —— (two) of "Cherry's operation," 400.
"Intesa Amichévole" and our Italian colleagues, 117.
Intestines, coccidia in the—red dysentery of cattle—observations on Eimeria zurni-rivolta, 219.
Intradermal test for Bacterium pullorum infection in fowls, 96.
Intussusception in the dog, 86.
Is the cat really a definite host of Dicrocœlium lanceatum? 327.
Italian colleagues and "Intesa Amichévole," 117.
Italy, America and France, the professional "Entente Cordiale" in, 115.
——, somewhere in, boxing competition (illustrated), 226.
Ixodic lymphangitis, report on, 44.

J.

Jhooling in camels, note on (illustrated), 17, 18.

K.

Kidney, adenoma of the, in a horse, 55.
Knife and neurectomy hook combined (illustrated), 325.

L.

Laceration, of the sacro-iliac articulation in the mare, notes of a case of (illustrated), 253.
Ladies' Auxiliary Veterinary Relief Fund, 238, 397.
Lamb, young, docking and castration of, 386.
Lame horse, 330.
Lameness, shoulder, treated with injection of cocaine, 150.
Laryngeal paralysis on active service, notes on the results of a certain number of operations for, 167.
Lavage, gastro-intestinal against worms, 304.
Leading Articles.—
American colleagues, our, and the Somme Veterinary Medical Society, 116.
Animal food, 42.
Awkward clients and increased fees, 316.
Dietetic value of hay-loft sweepings (illustrated), 237.
Diseases of fowls and fish, 77.
Energy and production, 3.
Inclusion of horseflesh in the food ration scheme, 155.
Is the practice of medicine more an art than a science? 235.
Italian colleagues, our, and "Intesa Amichévole," 117.
Ladies' Auxiliary Veterinary Relief Fund, 238.
Milk, 78.
Necessity for economy in regard to horses and mules, 316.
——for the proper care of horses and mules during the present war, 196.

"Novices' slaughtering block," and the humane slaughtering of animals, 355.
Our Ladies' Auxiliary Relief Fund Committee, 395.
—— livelihood, 41.
Professional "Entente Cordiale" in France, Italy and America, 115.
Research work, 275.
Saving animal life, 4.
Self-help, 395.
Some seasonal diseases of war, 195.
Text-books, 276.
Veterinary student, and his value to the country, 315.
—— —— and the continuation of the war, 156.
—— tribunal, 356.
What's over yonder? 353.
Lice, control of, on horses, with especial reference to winter conditions, 247, 278.
——, horse, Trichodectes and Hæmatopinus, notes in regard to (illustrated), 87.
Livelihood, our, 41.
Liver-rot or fluke (distomatosis), in sheep and cattle, 5.
Lymphangitis, epizootic, arsenivan in the treatment of, 72.
—— ——, curative treatment of, by vaccine therapy, 73.
—— ——, notes on, 124.
—— in elephants (illustrated), 403.
—— in the horse, treatment of, 111.
—— ixodic, report on, 44.
——, ulcerative, notes on treatment from November 18th, 1917, to January 11th, 1918, 199.
—— ——, or ulcerative cellulitis, 130.
—— ——, remarks and suggestions on the vaccine and serum methods of treatment of, 170.

M

Mal-de-caderas, 266.
Man, birds and animals, aspergillosis of. A résumé (illustrated), 59.
Mange, sarcoptic, in the dog, and purulent ophthalmia in a bull bitch, 178.
Manure, horse, the production and self-destruction of domestic flies in, 74.
Mare, notes of a case of laceration of the sacro-iliac articulation in the (illustrated), 253.
Mastitis in cattle, notes on, 376.
Maternal and fœtal dystocia combined, case of, 329.
Meat-inspection Service of the United States Department of Agriculture, 414.
Medicine, is the practice of, more an art than a science? 235.
Medicinal treatment of cryptorchidism, 305.
Mercurial compounds in the treatment of epizootic lymphangitis, 223.
Military and economic necessity of an Army Veterinary Service, 263.
Milk, 78.
—— defects in the cow and their remedies, 246.
Milk-borne diseases, 433.
Mode, new, of fishing, 108.
Mules and horses, necessity for economy in regard to, 316.
—— —— —— for the proper care of, during the present war, 196.

N

Native cattle of East Africa, normal erythrocyte count of, 243.
Necessity for abattoirs, 334, 432.
—— for economy in regard to horses and mules, 316.
—— for the proper care of horses and mules during the present war, 196.
Necro-Bacillosis, 434.
Neurectomy hook and knife combined (illustrated), 325.
New mode of fishing, 108.
—— order in Italy regarding horses, mules or donkeys sent to the abattoirs, 351.
—— vision of an old plague, 189.
—— Year's honours, 35.
Normal erythrocyte count of East African native cattle, 243.
North Cardiganshire, special reference to the disease, braxy, as seen in, 206.
Note on jhooling in camels (illustrated), 17, 18.
Notes in regard to horse lice, Trichodectes and Hæmatopinus (illustrated, 87.)
—— of a case of laceration of the sacro-iliac articulation in the mare (illustrated), 253.
—— on mastitis in cattle, 376.
—— on treatment of ulcerative lymphangitis from November 18th, 1917, to January 11th, 1918, 199.
Notice.—
Stannoxyl, 190.
"Novices' slaughtering block," and the humane slaughtering of animals, 355.

O

Obituary.—
Baldassare, Salvatore, 37.
Campbell, the late Capt. A. W (illustrated), 2 and 36.
Carr Bey, 37.
Gibbings, F. H., F.R C.V.S. (illustrated), 348.
Hammond, Mr. John, M.R.C.V.S., 229.
Leach, the late Captain R. E. (illustrated), 2 and 36.
Lenox Conyngham, Lt.-Col. H. M (illustrated), 192.
Liautard, Alexandre Francois, M.D. D.V.M., 231, 270.
Melvin, Dr. Alonzo Dorus, 232.
Routledge, Captain A. R., M.R.C.V.S., 309.
Shirley, Captain J., A.V.C., 2, 36.
Smith, Henry, M.R.C.V.S., 309,
Stephenson, Dr. Clement, 349.
Todd, J. A. (illustrated), 40, 76.
Wan Emms, 38.
Wright, Thomas, M.R.C.V.S. (illustrated), 40, 75.
Observations on Eimeria zurni-rivolta—Coccidia in the intestines—Red dysentery of cattle, 219.
Obstructed breathing due to a cyst (illustrated), 398.
Officers' Conference of the French and British Army Veterinary Service, 118, 157.
Operations for laryngeal paralysis on active service, note on the results of a certain number of, 167.
Ophthalmia, equine specific, notes on the treatment of, 54.
——, periodic, 244.
——, purulent, in a bull bitch, and sarcoptic mange in dog, 178.
Oral sepsis in the dog, 213.
Origin, uræmia of acarian, in horses, 69

Original Communications;—
About Hæmatozoa and their intermediary carriers or bearers, By Thomas B. Goodall, F.R.C.V.S. 437.
Actinomycosis. By Major J. H. Taylor, M.C., 198.
Adenoma of the kidney in a horse. By Lieut. J. J. Aveston, M.R.C.V.S., A.V.C., 55.
Alopecia. By G. Mayall, M.R.C.V.S., 16.
Aspergillosis of birds, man and animals. A résumé (illustrated) By Fred C. Mahon, M.R.C.V.S., 59.
Bacterial pyelonephritis in a cow. By G. Gair, M.R.C.V.S., 56.
Bloody urine. C. Mayal,l M.R.C.V.S., 58.
Braxy: with special reference to the disease as seen in North Cardiganshire. By E. Morgan, M.R.C.V.S., D.V.N., 179, 206.
British flock-masters' and veterinary surgeons' outlook. By E. Morgan, M.R.C.V.S., D.V.H., 358.
Carrel's tube treatment for septic wounds, as adapted to veterinary surgery. By Capt. E. S. W. Peatt, (illustrated), 136.
Case of combined maternal and fœtal dystocia. By P. Wilson, M.R.C.V.S., 329.
—— of digitalis poisoning. By J. W. Pollock, M.R.C.V.S., 375.
—— of staggers in horse. By M. Clarkson, M.R.C.V.S., 331.
Clinical cases. By J. H. Parker, M.R.C.V.S., 411.
Code of ethics for members of the American Veterinary Medical Association, 109.
Combined neurectomy hook and knife (illustrated). By Capt. A. Savage, 325.
Conference of officers of the French and British Army Veterinary Service, held in France, January 12th, 1918, 118, 157.
Control of lice on horses, with especial reference to winter conditions. By Maurice C. Hall, Ph.D., D.V.M., 247, 278.
Copper Sulphate as a disinfectant and germicide. By Capt. Watson, A.V.C., 326.
Delayed fracture of the humerus By Wm. Lothian, M.R.C.V.S., 14.
Dietetic value of hay-loft sweepings (illustrated). By R. G. Linton, M.R.C.V.S., 239.
Diphtheritic vaginitis of cattle. By C. A. Powell, M.R.C.V.S., 11.
Distomatosis, liver-rot, or fluke in sheep and cattle. By Edward Morgan, M.R.C.V.S., D.V.H., 5.
Ectopia cardis (illustrated). By W. Lothian, M.R.C.V.S., 364.
Few errors in diagnosis and treatment. By "Canis Major," 371
Gangrenous Dermatitis, 435.
Generalised sarcomatosis of the fowl (illustrated). By B. F. Kaupp, 80.
Glanders and farcy. By Major-General J. Moore, C.B., F.R.C.V.S. 120.
Hepatic echinococci as a mechanical cause of chronic tympanitis in cattle. By Henry B. Eve, M.R.C.V.S., 176.

Hog cholera, 107.
Interesting case. By Henry Eve, M.R.C.V.S., 365.
——. By G. Mayall, M.R.C.V.S. 409.
Intradermal test for Bacterium pullorum infection in fowls. By Archibald R. Ward and Bernard A. Gallaghar, 96.
Intussusception in the dog, 86.
Is the cat really a definite host of Dicrocœlium lanceatum? By R. T. Leiper, M.D., D.Sc., 327.
Lame horse. By J. H. Parker, M.R.C.V.S., 330.
Lymphangitis in elephants. By M. C. Gupta (illustrated), 403.
Milk defects in the cow and their remedies. By G. Mayall, M.R.C.V.S., 246.
New mode of fishing, 108.
Normal erythrocyte count of East African native cattle. By Capt. H. E. Hornby, 243.
Note on jhooling in camels. By H. E. Cross, M.R.C.V.S., D.V.H., D.Sc. (illustrated), 17, 18.
—— on the results of a certain number of operations for laryngal paralysis on active service. By Col. Newsom, C.M.G., D.D.V.S. 167.
Notes in regard to horse lice, Trichodectes and Hæmatopinus (illustrated). By Maurice C. Hall, Ph.D., D.V.M., 87.
—— of a case of complete dislocation of the left femur in a cow, with rough diagram showing the characteristic recumbent posture. By Capt. W. R. Routledge, F.R.C.V.S. (illustrated), 177.
—— on epizootic lymphangitis. By Major W. A. Pallin, D.S.O., F.R.C.V.S., 124.
—— on mastitis in cattle. By J. W. Pollock, M.R.C.V.S., 376.
—— on treatment of equine specific ophthalmia. By Major F. Chambers, F.R.C.V.S., A.V.C., 54.
—— —— of ulcerative lymphangitis, from November 18th, 1917, to January 11th, 1918. By Capt. A. J. Hines, A.V.C. (T.F.), 199.
Obstructed breathing due to a cyst. By Lieut.-Col. J. R. Hodgkins, D.S.O. (illustrated), 398.
Oral sepsis in the dog. By Henry B. Eve, M.R.C.V.S., 213.
Parasitism. A résumé. By Fred. C. Mahon, M.R.C.V.S., 214
Periodic ophthalmia. By H. C. Wilkie, F.R.C.V.S., F.Z.S., 244.
Ptomaine poisoning in the dog. By G. Mayall, M.R.C.V.S., 211.
Purpura hæmorrhagica. By W. W. Brooke, M.R.C.V.S., 373.
Pyæmia in a heifer. By G. Mayall, M.R.C.S., 205.
Radial paralysis in the cow (illustrated), 15.
Report on ixodic lymphangitis. By Capt. E. M. Jarvis, S.A.V.C., 44.
Retention of urine as a cause of colic in young foals. By P. Wilson, M.R.C.V.S., 333.
Sarcoptic mange in the dog, and purulent ophthalmia in a bull bitch. By G. Mayall, M.R.C.V.S., 178.
Sclerostomes as a cause of debility. By Capt. Hamilton Kirk, A.V.C.T.F., 202.
Seaweed. By G. Mayall, M.R.C.V.S., 481.
Shoulder lameness treated with injection of cocaine. By R. Hudson, M.R.C.V.S., 150.
Sodium sulphate exsiccat. By W. Lothian, M.R.C.V.S., 247.
Some remarks and suggestions on the vaccine and serum methods of treatment of ulcerative lymphangitis (lymphangitis ulcereuse-Nocard). By Capt. E. A. Watson, C.A.V.C., 170.
Springtime cases. By Richard Jones, M.R.C.V.S., 369.
Tannin and tanning. By P. G. Pond, M.R.C.V.S., 284.
Toxic enteritis and constipation in the dog. By Henry B. Eve, M.R.C.V.S., 212.
Transmission by cow's milk of B. Diphtheria. By G. Gair, M.R.C.V.S, 447.
Treatment of injury of the spine in the dog by suspension. By G. Mayall, M.R.C.V.S., 175.
Treble strangulation of the ileum in a horse. By Capt. R. C. G. Hancock (illustrated), 168.
Two interesting cases of "Cherry's operation." By Major Frederick Hobday, F.R.C.V.S., 400.
Ulcerative cellulitis or ulcerative lymphangitis. By Colonel A. C. Newsom, C.M.G., D.D.V.S., 130.
Urethral calculus, 110.
Veterinary service in the American Army, and the duties of veterinarians during the war period. By Major Charles E. Cotton, V.C., N.A., 318.

—— surgeon as an educative force. By G. Mayall, M.R.C.V.S., 357.
Wind sucking in a cow. By W. Lothian, M.R.C.V.S., 365.
Our Ladies' Auxiliary Relief Fund Committee, 397.

P.

Paralysis, radial, in the cow (illustrated), 15.
Paraphimosis in the dog, 290.
Parasitic cysts in the brain of a dog, epilepsy caused by, 255.
Parasitism. A résumé, 214.
Periodic ophthalmia, 157, 244.
New Year's honours, 35, 229, 309, 392, 431, 432.
Pitfalls in castration, 302.
Poisoning, ptomaine, in the dog, 211.
Practice of medicine, is the, more an art than a science? 235.
Production and self-destruction of domestic flies in horse manure, 74.
——, energy and, 3.
Professional "Entente Cordiale" in France, Italy, and America, 115.
Ptomaine posioning in the dog, 211.
Purpura hæmorrhagica, 373.
Purulent ophthalmia in a bull bitch and sarcoptic mange in dog, 17.
Pyæmia in a heifer, 205.
Pyelonephritis, bacterial, in a cow, 56.

Q

Quartermaster Corps of the army, effort to return the American Veterinary Service to the, 297.

R

Rabies, 391.
Radial paralysis in the cow (illustrated), 15.
Red dysentery of cattle—coccidia in the intestines—observations on Eimeria zurni-rivolta, 219.
Registered veterinary surgeons, 390.
Remedies for milk defects in the cow, 246.
Report on ulcerative cellulitis—ulcerous lymphangitis. By Capt. A.E. Watson, A.V.C., 271.
Research work, 275.
Results of a certain number of operations for laryngeal paralysis on active service, 167.
Retention of urine as a cause of colic in young foals, 333.
Reviews.—
Annual Report of the Civil Veterinary Department, Bihar and Orissa, for the year 1917–1918. 429.
Annual Report on the Allahabad Civil Veterinary Department, for the year ending 31st March, 1917, 352.
Common diseases of pigs and their diagnosis, including swine fever and its treatment with serum (Peacey–Baillière), 430.
Meat inspection problems, with special reference to the developments of recent years (Howarth—Baillière), 113.
"Notes on parasitic anaphylaxis and allergy" (L. Van Es and A. F. Schalk), 190.
Practical veterinary pharmacology and therapeutics (Milks—Macmillan), 152.
Report of the twenty-first annual meeting of the United States Live Stock Sanitary Association, Chicago, December 3, 4, 5, 1917, 228.
Report of the Veterinary Director-General for the Department of Agriculture, Canada, 1916 (Labroquerie Taché), 31.
Rhodesia Agricultural Journal, 191.
Special Equine Therapy (Steffan–American Veterinary Publishing Co.), 33.
Text-book of the principles and practice of Veterinary Medicine (White—Lea & Febiger), 312.
Veterinary Obstetrics. By W. L. Williams, 34.
Veterinary post-mortem technique (Crocker—Lippincott), 272, 351.
Veterinary review, February, 1918 (Bradley—Green), 114.
Veterinary Surgical Operations (Mèrillat—Ballière), 310.
Wounds of animals and their treatment (Smythe—Ballière), 227.
Ringworm in the dog, 291.

S

Sacro-iliac articulation in the mare, notes of a case of laceration of the (illustrated), 253.
Sarcomatosis, generalised, of the fowl (illustrated), 80.
Sarcoptic mange in the dog, and purulent ophthalmia in a bull bitch, 178.
Saving animal life, 4.
Science, is the practice of medicine more an art than a? 235.
Sclerostomes as a cause of debility, 202.
Seasonal diseases of war, 195.
Seaweed, 401.

Self-destruction and production of domestic flies in horse manure, 74.
Self-help, 395.
Sepsis, oral, in the dog, 213.
Septic wounds, Carrel's tube treatment for, as adapted to veterinary surgery (illustrated), 136.
Serum and vaccine methods of treatment of ulcerative lymphangitis, some remarks and suggestions, 170.
Service, veterinary, in the American Army, and the duties of veterinarians during the war period, 318.
Sheep and cattle, distomatosis, liver-rot or fluke in, 5.
Shell fright, effect of a, 229.
Shoulder lameness treated with injection of cocaine, 150.
Slaughtering, humane, of animals, and the "novices' slaughtering block," 355.
Sodium sulphate exsiccat, 247
Some seasonal diseases of war, 195.
"Somewhere in Italy," boxing competition (illustrated), 226.
Somme Veterinary Medical Society, and our American colleagues, 116.
Special tribunal, 390.
Specific ophthalmia, equine, notes on the treatment of, 54.
Spine in dog, treatment of injury of, by suspension, 175.
Spring time cases, 369.
Staggers, case of, in horse, 331,
Stomach-worm disease, symptoms and control of, 387.
Strangulation, treble, of the ileum in a horse, 168.
Student, veterinary, and his value to the country, 315.
—— ——, and the continuation of the war, 156.
Surgeon, veterinary, as an educative force, 357.
Suspension, treatment of injury of the spine in the dog by, 175.
Sweepings, hay-loft, dietetic value of (illustrated), 237, 239.
Symptoms and control of stomach-worm disease, 387.

T.

Tail, amputation of, 254.
Tannin and tanning, 284.
Test, intradermal, for Bacterium pullorum infection in fowls, 96.
Text-books, 276.
Therapeutics, diagnosis and, of glanders, 298.
Therapy, vaccine, the curative treatment of epizootic lymphangitis by, 73.
Toxic enteritis and constipation in the dog, 212.
Translations.—
Arsenivan in the treatment of epizootic lymphangitis, 73.
Coccidia in the intestines—red dysentery of cattle—Observations on Eimeria zurni-rivolta By Prof. B. Galli-Valerio, 219.
Curative treatment of epizootic lymphangitis by vaccine therapy. By Velu, 73.
Diagnosis and therapeutics of glanders, 298.
Double-sided extensive cysts at the frontal end of the wolffian ducts in a cow. By Dr. E. Wyssmann (illustrated), 186.
Effects of asphyxiating gas on the horse, 301.
Fruit and vegetables, and their relation to the spread of infectious diseases. By K. V. Russ, 344.
Horse lazaret, its significance, development and present position. By Wilhelm Rode, 65.
Mal-de-caderas, 266.
Mercurial compounds in the treatment of epizootic lymphangitis. By Prof. Guido Finzi, 223.
On the treatment of lymphangitis in the horse. By Vet. Major Chaussé, 111.
Production and self-destruction of domestic flies in horse manure. By M. E. Rouband, 74.
Two new feeding-stuffs, 188.
Uræmia of acarian origin in horses. By Vet. Aide-Major Leneven, 69.
Transmitters of anthrax or charbon, blood-sucking insects as, 377.
Treatment and diagnosis, few errors in, 371.
—— of epizootic lymphangitis, mercurial compounds in the, 223.
—— of equine specific ophthalmia, notes on, 54.
—— of injury of the spine in the dog by suspension, 175.
—— of ulcerative lymphangitis by vaccine and serum, 170.
—— —— —— from November 18th, 1917, to January 11th, 1918, 199.
Treble strangulation of the ileum in a horse (illustrated), 168.
Trichodectes, Hæmatiponus, and horse lice, notes in regard to (illustrated), 87.
Tube treatment, Carrel's, for septic wounds, as adapted to veterinary surgery (illustrated), 136.
Two interesting cases of "Cherry's operation," 400.

—— new feeding-stuffs, 188.
Tympanitis, chronic, in cattle, hepatic echinococci as a mechanical cause of, 176.
—— in dog, 291.

U.

Ulcerative cellulitis or ulcerative lymphangitis, 130.
—— lymphangitis, notes on treatment of, from November 18th, 1917, to January 11th, 1918, 199.
—— ——, some remarks and suggestions on the vaccine and serum treatment of, 170.
United States Department of Agriculture, meat-inspection service, 414.
Uræmia of acarian origin in horses, 69.
Urethal calculus, 110.
Urine, bloody, 59.
——, retention of, as a cause of colic in young foals, 333.

V

Vaccine and serum methods of treatment of ulcerative lymphangitis, some remarks and suggestions on, 170.
——, therapy, curative treatment of epizootic lymphangitis by, 73.
Vaginitis of cattle, diphtheritic, 11.
Value, dietetic, of hay-loft sweepings (illustrated), 237, 239.
—— of the veterinary student to the country, 315.
Veterinarians, duties of, during the war period, and veterinary service in the American Army, 318.
Veterinary casualties, German, to end of 1917, 389.
—— Service, American, an effort to return to the Quartermaster Corps of the Army, 297.
—— —— in the American Army, and the duties of veterinarians during the war period, 318.
—— student, and his value to the country, 315.
—— —— and the continuation of the war, 156.
—— surgeon as an educative force, 357.
—— surgeons' and British flock-masters' outlook, 258.
—— tribunal, 356.

W.

War, continuation of the, and the veterinary student, 156.
——, some seasonal diseases of, 195.
——, the present, necessity for the proper care of horses and mules during, 196.
Water drop-wort, cattle-poisoning by, 307.
What's over yonder? 353.
Wind sucking in a cow, 365.
Winter conditions, control of lice on horses, with especial reference to 247.
Worms, gastro-intestinal lavage against, 304.

LONDON

BAILLIÈRE, TINDALL AND COX,

8, HENRIETTA STREET, COVENT GARDEN, W.C.2.